

My darling bride is like:
a private garden,
a spring no one else can have,
a fountain of my own.

You are a garden fountain,
a well of living water,
refreshing as the streams
from the mountains of Lebanon.

Song of Solomon 4:12 & 15